MANDATORY FOOD SAFETY CERTIFICATION FOR MANAGERS

For all food service operators serving potentially hazardous foods

The Manager Food Safety Certification Act requires that each food service establishment be managed by a full-time certified food safety manager at each establishment site. This manager must register with the appropriate local health department.

To register as manager certified in food safety with the Weber-Morgan Health Department, the applicant shall:

1. Present documentation of having passed an exam approved by the Utah Department of Health.
2. Make a written application for registration on a form provided by the Weber-Morgan Health Department located at 477 23rd Street, Ogden, Utah.
3. A picture I.D. should be provided at the time of registration.
4. Pay the application fee of $20.00

The courses listed below are commonly taught either in Ogden or Salt Lake City. All locations listed are also prepared to provide an exam only. USU Extension Service also provides the exam in Spanish.

Other courses may be available. For a course not listed, the applicant should be certain that one of the three approved exams will be used for certification. The Weber-Morgan Health Department can be contacted for further questions at (801) 399-8435.
