48.18 Policy

- 48.18.1 To ensure that a detainee's rights are met during scheduled court appearances, the following minimum procedures will be followed:
- A. Court bailiffs/deputies will ensure a timely court appearance of the detainee.
 - B. Bailiffs/deputies will ensure the detainees opportunity to make bail, if appropriate, is not impeded.
 - C. Bailiffs/deputies will ensure that detainees have confidential access to attorneys in the holding facility and/or court room. Such visits will be restricted to the courtroom if required during scheduled proceedings.
 - D. Detainees are not allowed access to a telephone when brought to the court building/holding facility for scheduled hearings.
 - E. Bailiffs/deputies will ensure that meals are provided to a detainee that is held at the court holding facility through the lunch or dinner hour.
